

Dear members

The first IULH World Championship Show will go on 18 September 2021 in Cluny, France.

The dogs will be judged by an international judges panel:

Valérie BONTEMS (FR) – Natalia ROMANOVA (RU) – Wolfgang MAYER (DE) – Guido PEROSINO (IT) – José Félipé RUIZ CASTANEDA (ES) – Thomas WALKER (AU).

(The judges may be changed depending on the unavailability of the judges or the number of dogs entered).

The following titles will be given:

French CACS

IULH Hope – Minor puppy male and female winners

IULH Young Promise – Puppy male and female winners

IULH World Championship Junior Winner is awarded to the best youth male and the best youth female, chosen from youth class.

IULH World Championship Winner is awarded to the best male and the best female, chosen from intermediate, open, working and champion classes that were awarded the qualification 1° Excellent in their class.

IULH World Championship Veteran Winner is awarded to the best veteran female and the best veteran male in the veteran class.

A big gala dinner with dance music is scheduled after the show, where participants from many countries can socialize.

The show is scheduled in conjunction with the National French Club Show which will go on the next day, 19 September 2021 in Cluny.

The judges for that show are: Sylvie CARDON (FR) – Monique LAROUX (FR) – Suzanna JOHANSSON (SE) – Chantal REILHAC (FR) – Paule RIVIERE (FR) – Kerry RUSHBY (GB) .

(The judges may be changed depending on the unavailability of the judges or the number of dogs entered).

An EU COVID certificate or other proof of vaccination or a valid COVID test certificate is required.

In order to make this first ever Leonberger World Championship a big success with many dogs from many countries entered, it would be good if you can put the info about this event on your club's website and, if possible, share it with the breeders of your club.

Looking forward to meet many friends in Cluny,

With best regards,

Hein Sibrijns

Secretary IULH
